Re: Complaint of National Republican Senatorial Committee, No. MUR 4940 -
Submission for the Public Record

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am writing on behalf of Campaign for America ("CFA"), Jerome Kohlberg, Eileen Capone and Douglas Berman, respondents in the above-referenced proceeding, with respect to the Commission's letter dated January 24, 2001, and the Commission's March 19, 2001, press release.

Regarding the allegations in the complaint in this case, the Commission's letter states that "there was an insufficient number of votes to find no reason to believe that respondents violated applicable statutes or regulations. Likewise, the Commission's press release states that the Commission "failed to pass a motion to find no reason to believe" that respondents had violated the law.

As we understand the course of the proceedings, the Commission received the General Counsel's Report. In that Report, the Commission Staff analyzed the facts and the applicable legal principles, and recommended that respondents be completely exonerated of all of the charges in the complaint. The Commission then considered the complaint and the Report, found no violation of the law by any of the respondents, and thus declined to take any further action. Accordingly, the complaint was not sustained and the Commission's file in this case has been closed.
